Sir,

Allowances - Tasdik - Udipi Taluk - Havanje village - Havinje Vinayaka Dev - Re-admission and payment of arrears.

Sc.n 326 a/c 4th f. 9d. 1938 - Verified (Budget work being done) x Rs. 2.c.f. 1937

The Hindu Religious Institution No.414 Havinje Vinayaka Dev of Udipi Taluk had an annual tasdik of Rs.14/-, payable by beriz deduction. As the allowance was not claimed for over 6 years (with effect from fasli 1337), it was struck off the register in this office D.Dis.No.6237-36, dated 5.12.1936. The President of the Hindu Religious Endowments Board, Madras, has now appointed one Puttanna Vakkinnaya as the trustee of the temple, and he requests that the arrears of tasdik due to the institution may be paid to the new trustee. Enquiry held in the matter shows that the institution has been in repairs and services were being regularly performed during the period the allowance was held in deposit. I, therefore, recommend that the allowance may be re-admitted and sanction may be accorded for payment of the arrears subject to the usual deductions.

P396

The office of trustee was vacant after the death of the last trustee and the allowance was struck off the Register in 1936, as it was not claimed for over 6 years. The Hindu Religious Endowments Board, Madras, appointed the new trustee in October 1937. The failure to apply for the payment of the allowance when due, was not therefore due to the neglect of any trustee.
